

Brief curriculum vitae

Andreas Koufkis

General Director of Atlantic Securities Ltd

Andreas Koufkis is an economist, graduate of the Aristotle University of Thessaloniki. He is the vice president of the Cyprus Financial Services Firms Association (C.F.S.F.A) and a representative at the the Advisory Authority for Combating Money Laundering. He holds an upgraded certificate from the Cyprus Securities and Exchange Commission; he is a certified negotiator of shares and derivatives from the Greece Securities and Exchange Commission and certified technical analyst. He is also a registered mediator on commercial issues at the Ministry of Justice and Public Order. Over the last 16 years he was employed in various investment companies and banks which had functions such as investment analysis, management of private portfolio and institutional investors and trading of shares and derivatives on stock exchanges both in Cyprus and abroad. Since 2003 he works at Atlantic Securities Ltd Company as a General Director.