

Brief Curriculum Vitae

Michael Kronides

Manager – Association of Cyprus Banks

Michael Kronides was born in Nicosia in 1971 and holds a Master in Business Administration (M.B.A. – University of Surrey) and a Bachelor of Commerce (Economics) – University of South Africa). He worked for 2 years (1998-2000) at Bank of Cyprus, initially at the Representative Office in South Africa and also the International Business Unit. He subsequently worked for 6 years (2000-2006) at HSBC Bank plc at the position of Head of Private Banking. From 2006 to date he has been employed at the Association of Cyprus Banks at the position of Manager. Currently, he oversees specialized banking matters relating to the supervisory and regulatory framework and is a member of the Banking Supervision Committee of the European Banking Federation. He is also an authorized and registered member of the Cyprus Securities and Exchange Commission for the provision of investment services.